

Top Tips for Dealing with Questions in a Presentation

Welcome!
Starting at 11:00

Barbara Moynihan
www.onyourfeet.ie

Top Tips for Dealing with Questions in a Presentation

Barbara Moynihan
www.onyourfeet.ie

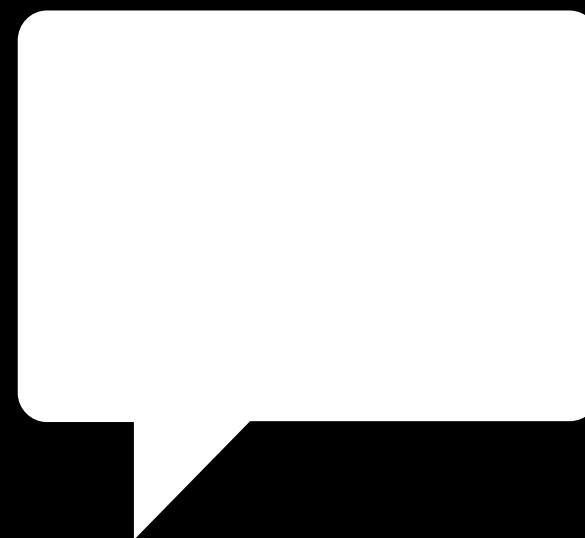

Poll

Before

During

The Curved Ball

Chat

Before

A close-up photograph of a brick wall with reddish-brown bricks and grey mortar. The text is overlaid on this background.

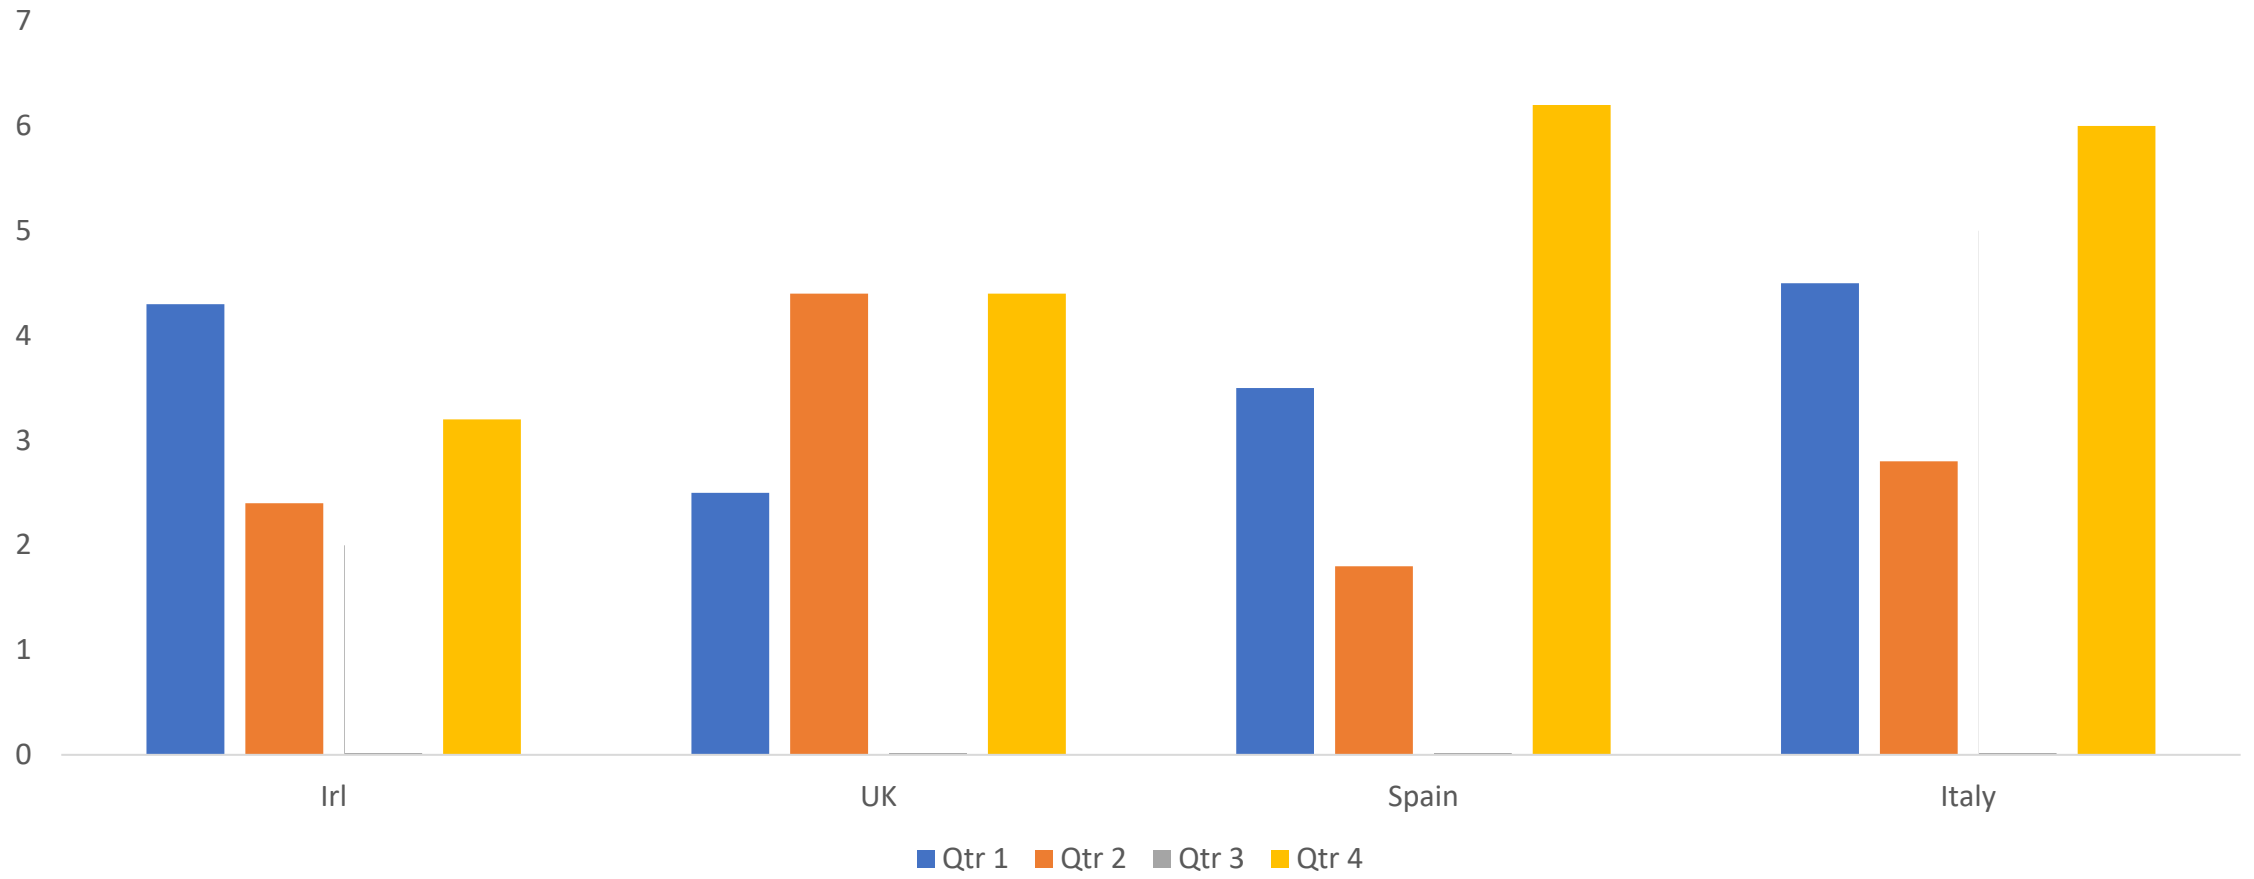

FAQ

Frequently Asked Questions

ADQ

Absolutely Dreaded Questions

Presentation Agenda

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

During

S T O R K

Stop

Think

What? Do I think ...
Why? Why do I think that ...
How? How can I make my point ...

S top

T hink

O rganise

R espond

K eep your mouth shut!

Does that answer your question?

Debbie

Sharon

Majella

Aideen

Barbara

W E B I N A R

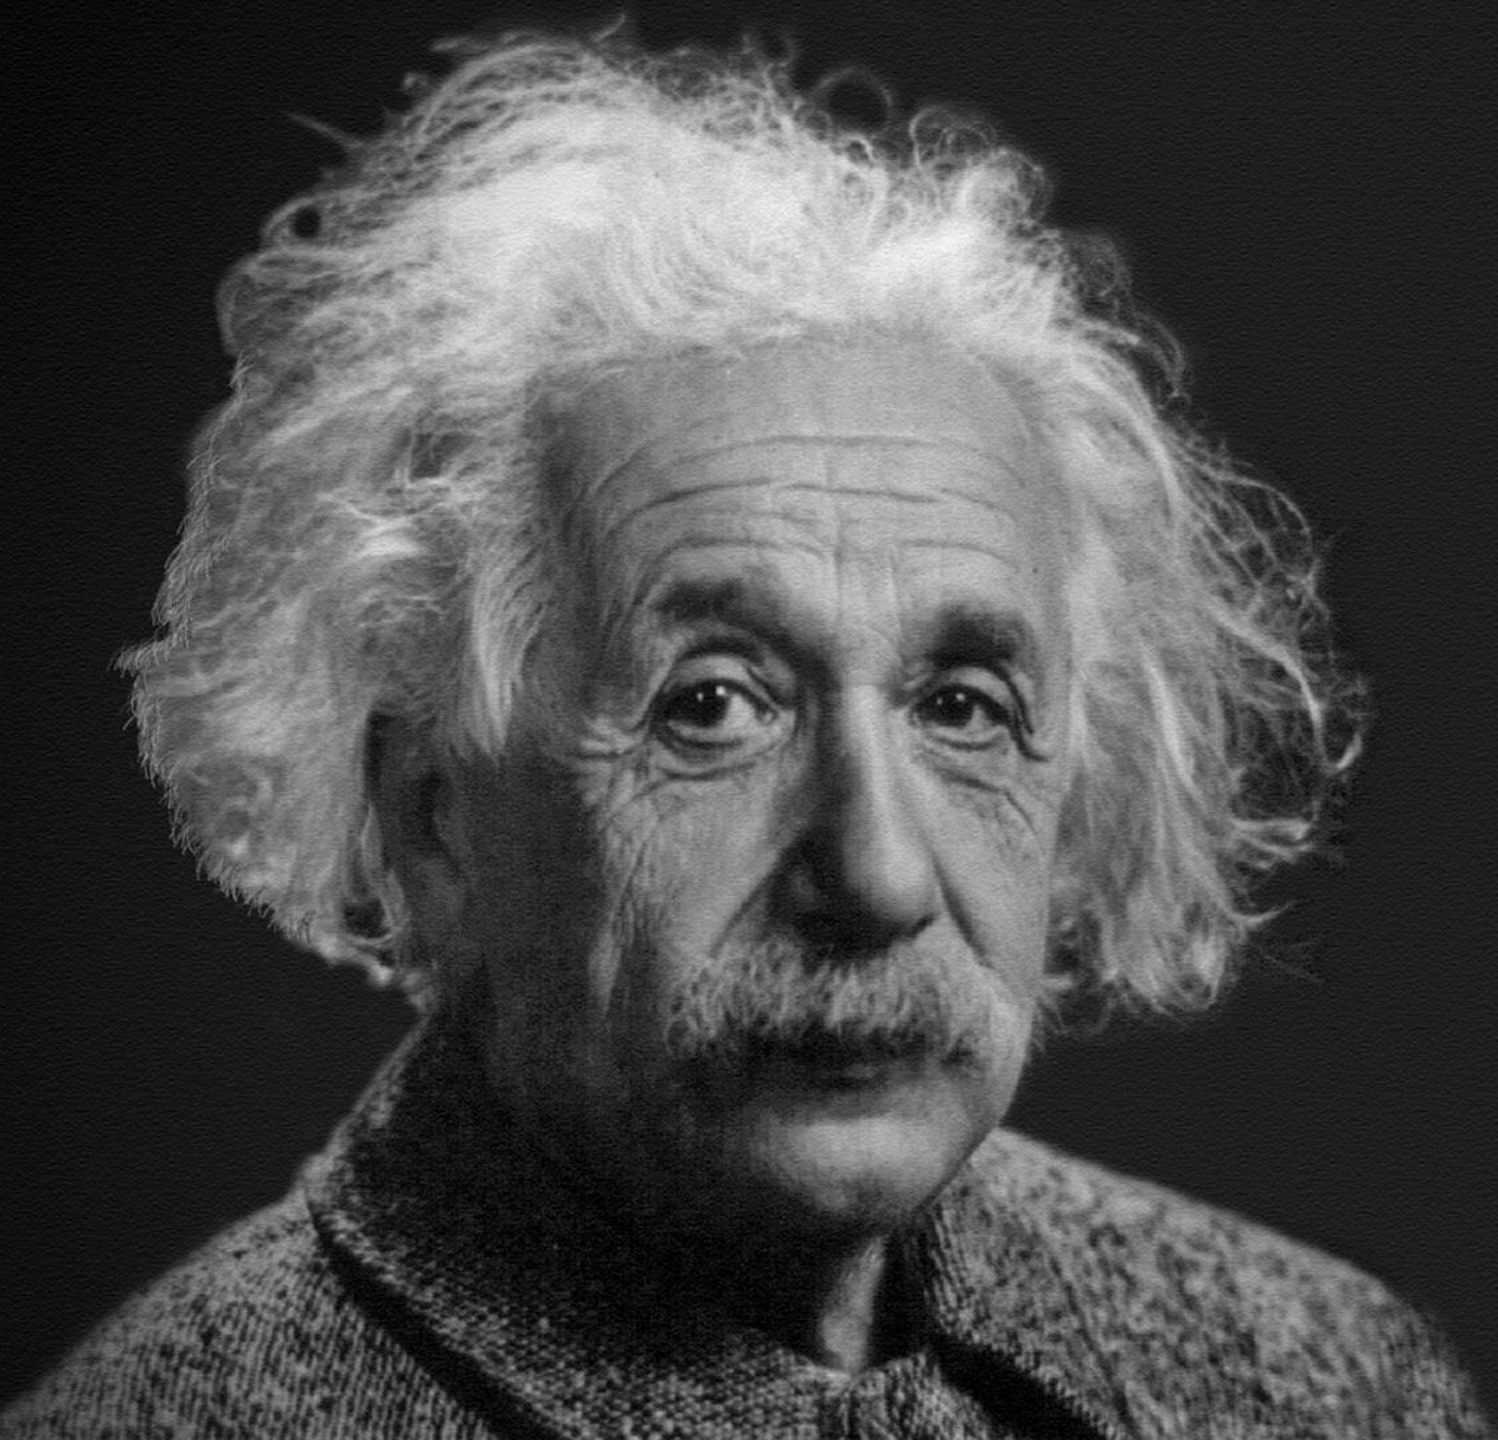

"Many thanks for joining us on our webinar, we really do appreciate your interest."

Barbara Moynihan, Founder of On Your Feet

The image is a dark, textured collage. It features several large, stylized question marks in a light blue or grey color, some with a glowing yellow outline. On the right side, there is a detailed illustration of a hand holding a pen, with a small circular object (possibly a ballpoint) near the tip. The text "The Curved Ball" is written in a white, serif font across the center of the image.

The Curved Ball

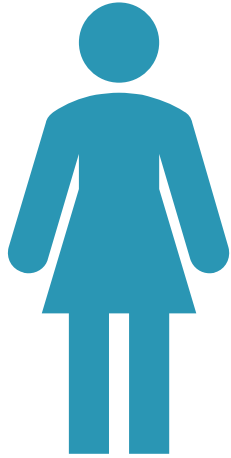

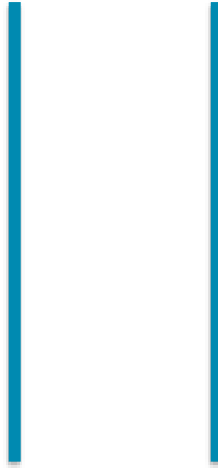

HONEST

Not your area of expertise ...

Re-direct

Go Parallel

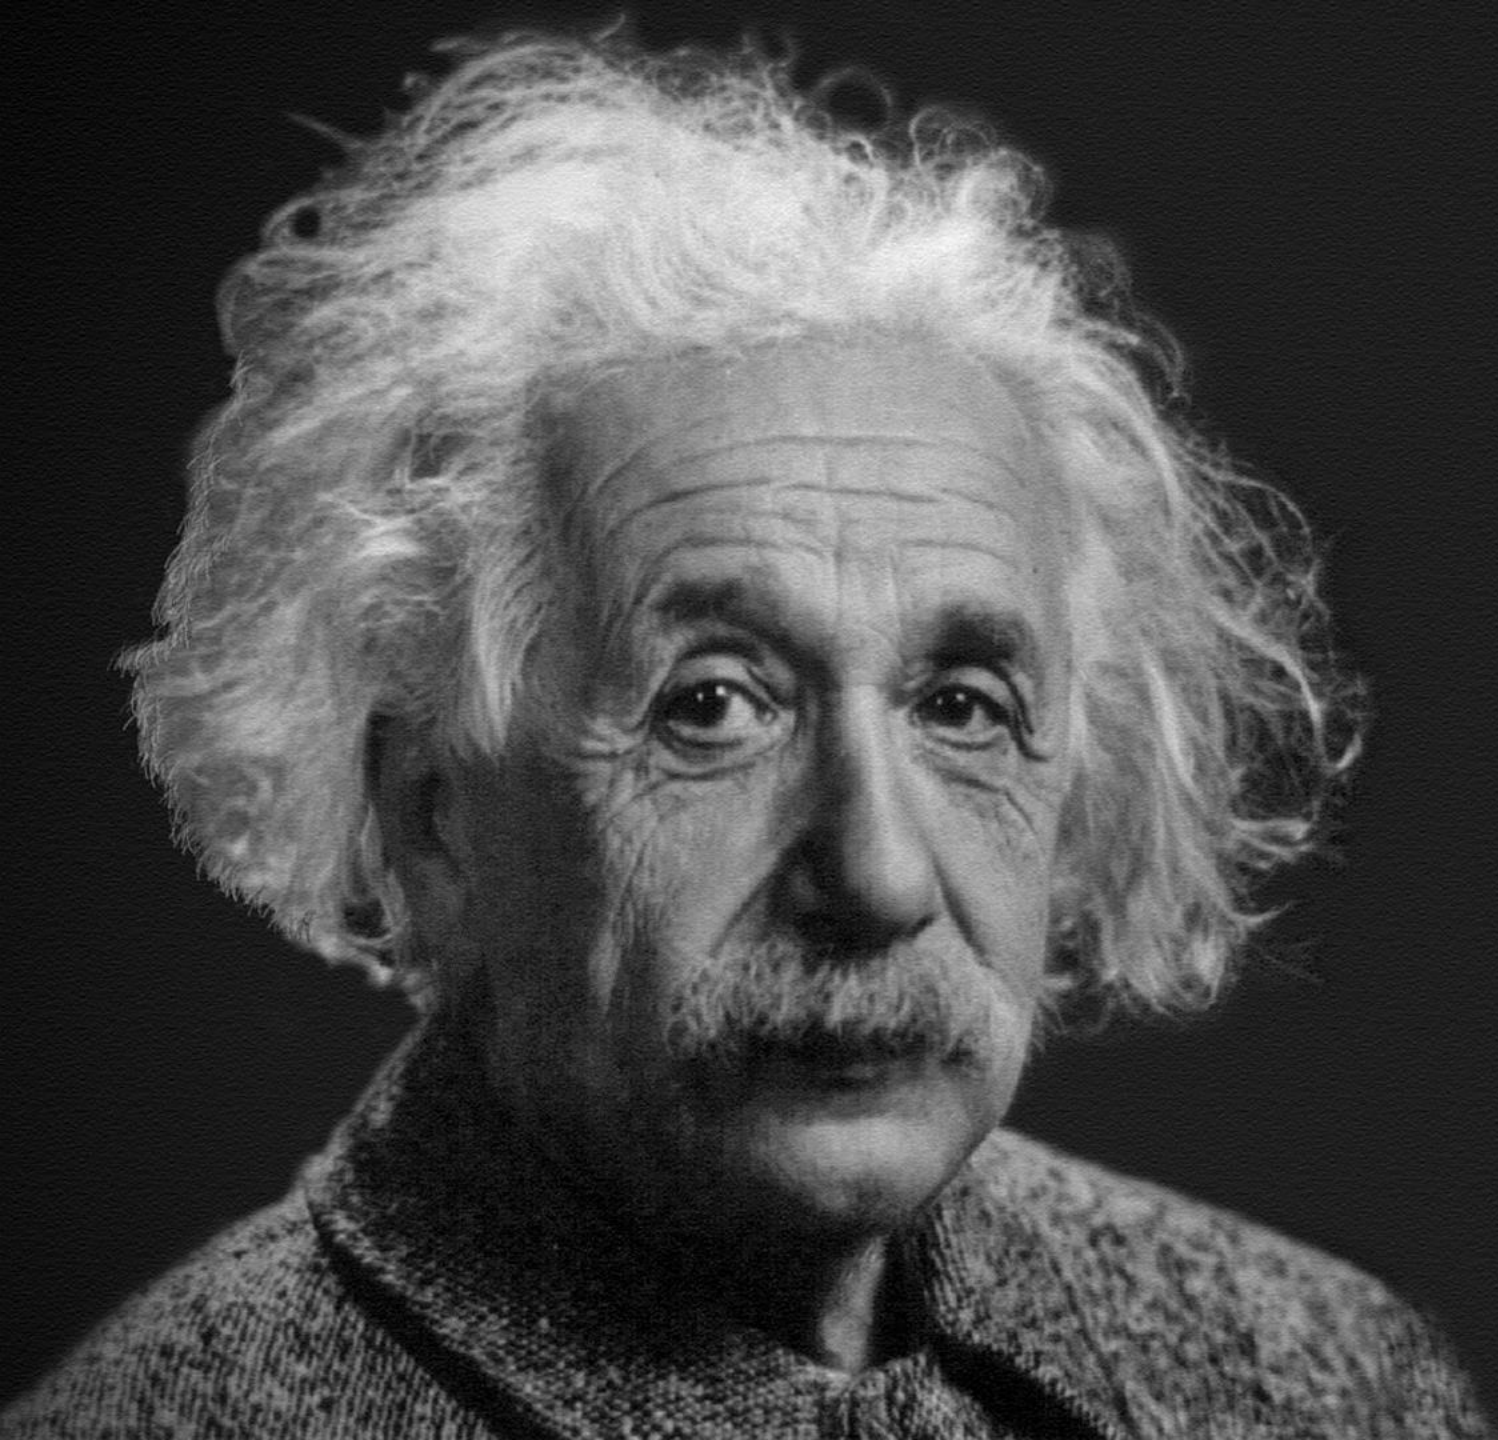

Deadline

“I have never been asked that before”

“Thank you for raising, it is something I will definitely take into consideration”

“Honestly, I do not know how I would answer that”

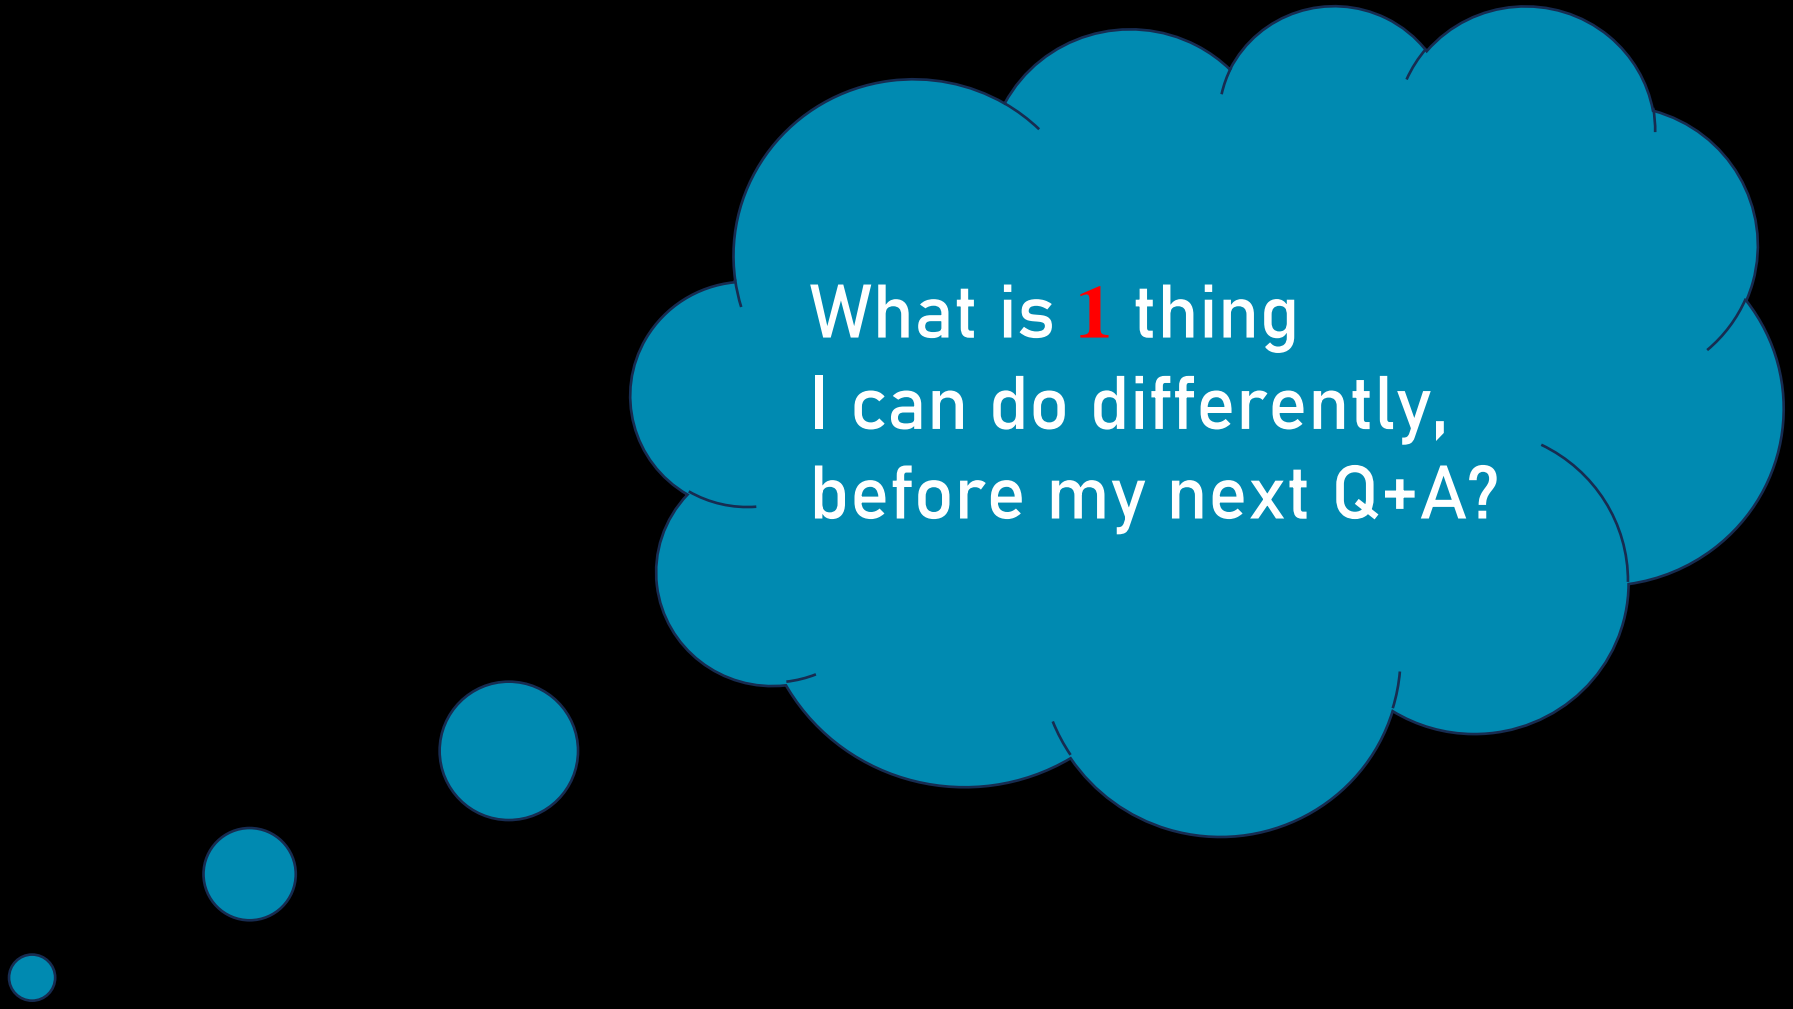

A collage of several large, stylized question marks in various shades of blue and purple, set against a dark, textured background. On the right side, a hand in a brown leather glove holds a silver pen. The overall composition suggests a theme of inquiry or uncertainty.

Before

During

The Curved Ball!

What is 1 thing
I can do differently, before my next Q+A?

Top Tips for Dealing with Questions in a Presentation

Barbara Moynihan
www.onyourfeet.ie